[Front of business card]

THOMAS WELSH,

Justice of the Peace.

COLUMBIA, LANCASTER COUNTY, PA.

Agent for COMMONWEALTH FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, of Philadelphia, and for PENN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, of the same city.

Collections made and returns promptly remitted. Deeds, Bonds, Mortgages, &c., carefully prepared.

Scope and Content:
Business card identifying Thomas Welsh as Justice of the Peace and as agent for the Commonwealth Fire Insurance Company and the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company. Card can be dated to between the latter half of 1859 (when he became a Penn Mutual agent) and the first half of 1860 (when he appears to have stopped selling for Commonwealth). As Justice of the Peace, he lists his services as "Collections made and returns promptly remitted. Deeds, Bonds, Mortgages, &c. carefully prepared." Illegible writing (names) on back of card.
