

Wheatland 4 March 1863

My dear Harriet,

I enclose a letter for you. My vaccination proved effectively strange to say.

Miss Hetty informs me that you desire to purchase a barrel of Petroleum; & I have no objections.

I wish you would inform me when next you write what checks of mine were in your favor were in your possession when you left Lancaster, stating the date & the amount.

Yours affectionately

Miss Lane

James Buchanan

