

Lancaster 25 April 1843

My dear Madam,

I have this moment received yours of the 21st Inst, (postmarked 25th) and shall most certainly be present on the joyful occasion, life & health permitting. It is more than probable, however, that I shall be obliged to go down the day of the wedding & return the day after.

Please to remember me most kindly to Elisabeth & Mr. Van Dyke, as well as to Ann & my portion of this world's goods & believe me to be most respectfully

Your friend

Mrs. Ann Kittera

James Buchanan
