

United States of America
Department of State

To all to whom these presents shall come Greeting:

Know Ye, that the bearer hereof, James Buchanan, Esquire, Envoy - Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States near the Government of Her Majesty, the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, is now proceeding to London.

These are therefore to request all whom it may concern to permit him to pass freely, without let or molestation, and to extend to him all such friendly aid and protection, as would be extended to Ministers Plenipotentiary of Foreign Countries, resorting to the United States.

In testimony whereof, I, William L. Marcy, Secretary of State of the United States of America, have hereunto signed my name and caused the Seal of this Department to be affixed at Washington this Fifth day of July A. D. 1853, and of the Independence of the United States the Seventy-eight.

W. L. Marcy
