

6 March '54 Duchess of Somerset

My dear Sir,

I am very sorry not to have sooner sent your books & little note. The Duke begs your Excellency's acceptance of his books - & we both unite in the [?] and cordial good wishes [& hopes?] that your health in spite of these [?] is good - & that you have recovered from your late indisposition - Believe me, always, My dear Sir,

Yours, with best regards
Most faithfully

[Ne.?] Park Lane - 6th March 1854
