

Wheatland, near Lancaster 17 Dec 1851

My dear Sir

I have this moment received your kind invitation of to day; & would most gladly accept it, if this were in my power. Should I go out tomorrow at all which is doubtful from the severity of the weather. ~~however~~, I have accepted an invitation to attend the opening of the Plank road between Lancaster & Petersburg.

With my kindest regards for Mrs Frueauff & Miss Theodora, I remain very respectfully your friend

James Buchanan
