My Dear Sir,

I recd on Saturday afternoon a letter from Mrs Dunham, in wh [sic] she says, "It would be great accommodation to me to receive $1000 at the present time, & will be much obliged if you will advance sum." She also says, "I will be very glad to have the note, with interest, arranged as you suggested in your letter."

The suggestion I made, & to which she alluded, was, that we should, on the 16th of next month, (when another year's interest will be due,) charge her with the amount of the principal & interest then due on her note or Mortgage, & thus stop the interest. She makes no allusion as to any letter from her uncle in wh [sic] he said she was to pay no interest. I infer therefore that she has no letter of this kind; at least no one that is clear & positive. She moreover fails to mention the name of a person in Meadville, who could attend to our business there. It has occurred to me that my son James might be able to attend to it. When you write again, please inform me what exactly there is to be done there, & whether you think it would be well to employ him; & whether it would be worth his while to go from Tidionte to attend to it.

As to Mrs Dunham's request for $1000; I shall be very glad if you will, at an early day, comply with it, it will doubtless be conferring a great favor upon her.

Very Truly
Yours &c
Edw Y. Buchanan

H B Swarr Esq.
