

Oxford Church Parsonage
Phila, May 17 '69

My Dear Sir,

I find that my traveling & other Expenses, incurred for the Estate, (including $1 paid to Brobson [sic] a Nortary, & $2.79 paid as Insurance on the Farm Buildings,) amount to $47 about $47. They may have been a little more, or a little less. As you know, I have been passing up & down on the Rail Road, since Jan. 1, without any expense to the Estate, except my board & lodging; having had a pass given to me at that time.

I hope you arrived safely at home on Saturday. Alice was decidedly in luck.

I think I will get you to have 6 more impressions of the Photograph of Wheatland. My children all think, as I do, that the Picture is a good one. I have concluded not to go to Lancaster till Thursday. I shall most probably go up in the 11.50 train. If you wish me before Thursday, please let me know.

Very Truly
Yours &c
Edw Y. Buchanan
