

Oxford Ch Parsonage,
March 31 '70

My Dear Sir,

Agreeable to your request, I went to town yesterday, & saw Mr Macalaster. He promised to have his check in Lancaster for you tomorrow morning. I gave him the Bond & Mortgage.

As you expect to be in Phil^a, on Friday of next week, I may not go to Lancaster so soon as I expected. I am very much obliged for your kind invitation to stay at your house when I come. I will meet you at Gaw Bacon & Co's on tomorrow week at 11 A.M.

With kind regards for Mrs Swarr & Miss Sallie, I am, Very Truly,
Edw Y. Buchanan

H B Swarr Esq

Mr. Gaw informed me yesterday, that the registered Virginia Bonds (wh [sic] ours are) are only 57 or 58; being much lower than the Coupon Bonds.
