

Oxford Ch [sic] Parsonage
April 4, 1870

My Dear Sir,

I have this day recd [sic] a letter from Jessie Magaw asking earnestly for, as early a payment as possible, of the money coming to her, from the Estate, under our first account. From what she says, I infer that she wishes it to make payment for a house wh [sic] she has been purchasing. I shall write to her this afternoon telling her that I have no doubt you will send me a Draft for the amount for her, as soon as practicable.

Between Thurs.& Friday you can perhaps prepare the Document we spoke of for the signature of the heirs, in relation to the $5000. I hope then to hear Mr. Hiester's opinion in reference to the removing of the papers.

We heard from Mr [sic] Henry a few days ago: but when he wrote he had not recd [sic] my letter in reference to the book. Hoping to see you on Friday at Gaw Bacon & Co at 11 A M, if in the meantime I do not hear from you, I am,

Very Truly,
Yours,
Edw Y. Buchanan
