

Oxford Ch Parsonage
Sept 28 '70

My Dear Sir,

Your letter of the 19th inst [sic], came to hand only this morning. It was returned to me from Mercersburg, whither it had been forwarded before my return.

I re-enclose to you the copy of Mr. Hiester's letter to Mrs. Johnston. I sincerely hope it had the effect of causing her to give up the papers without further trouble or difficulty. If it had not, I suppose, before this, suit has been entered, a disagreeable, but in this case, unavoidable alternative.

On my way home, I hoped I might see you at the Depot in Lancaster but was disappointed. I saw Charles however, as he probably informed you.

Hoping soon to hear from you again, I remain,

Very Truly

Yrs etc,

Edw Y. Buchanan

H B Swarr Esq.
