

Oxford Ch Parsonage,
Oct. 11 '70.

My Dear Sir,

Your favor of Saturday, enclosing the Bill in Equity & a check for $135; the semi-annual interest on my Russell Mortgages; was recd yesterday morning; & I am much indebted to you for it, & for them.

When I have the pleasure of seeing you again, I will have some further conversation with you in reference to the Mortgage on the property bought by Mr Wiley.

Miss Hetty & Mrs Dunham arrived here this morning. They are both very well. Miss Hetty desires to be remembered to you. She informs me that Mr & Mrs Johnston are about taking a trip to Montreal [etc]. Possibly our proceeding may prevent them. I shall be glad if you will inform me what they are likely to do, or are doing, in reference to our suit.

At our polls this morning in Frankford, the negroes seemed to be voting promiscuously with white men. The sight was any thing but a pleasing one.

With kindest regards for Mrs [sic] Swarr, I remain,

Very Truly,
Edward Y. Buchanan

HB Swarr Esq.
