July 9 '73

My Dear Mr Swarr,

Your favor of the 7th inst [sic], (with the enclosed check for $23, my share of the Commission on Mrs [sic] Johnston's Trust Interest [sic], paid in February last,) has been recd [sic], & I thank you for it; also for receiving & paying over to Gaw Bacon & Co, the amount of the principal & interest of the Russell bond ($1030.). I am glad to learn that your son Charles is again well & ready for work. The first time I see Mr [sic] Cassatt I will jog his memory in relation to employment for him.

Regretting that I did not happen to be in town the same you were there, & hoping to see you soon either in Phila or Lancaster, I remain

Very Truly

Yrs etc
