My Dear Sir,

Yr [sic] favor of Saturday, with its very satisfactory enclosure, has just been recd [sic]. I am truly glad, that the matter has been decided in the way it has; though I cannot see how it could have been legally or justly decided otherwise. And now, my dear Sir, will you please inform me, whether this is necessarily the end of the case. Is it in the power of Mrs [sic] Johnston to carry the matter to any other court. [sic] I am very anxious to pay to Mr [sic] Henry & Mrs [sic] Dunham their shares; but wd[sic] like to know, before doing so, whether there can be any further difficulty. It is also now necessary, (in order to determine, what their or any of our shares are,) to know what Mr [sic] North's charge for his services are. Will you please ascertain this & apportion the amount to our different shares.

As I am just about leaving home to attend a funeral, I must close by subscribing myself,

Yrs, Very Truly,
Edw Y. Buchanan

H B Swarr Esq.

Should you meet Judge Hayes, please my present my regards to him, & thank him for his very lucid & satisfactory opinion.
