

Oxford Church, Phil^a
July 30 '74.

My Dear Sir,

On the day I left home for Cape May, (viz on the 17th inst.) I called on Judge Cadwalader, as you desired, & mentioned yr [sic] suggestion as to the employment of a person to examine the files of the Intelligencer & Journal for information on reference to my brother, instead of bringing the files down here. In reply he said, that he wd [sic] prefer to look through them himself, & that, for this purpose, he wd [sic] go up to Lancaster. He also said, he wd [sic] write to you on the subject; wh [sic] I suppose he has done before this. And I may here say that his stating his intention to write, was the reason of my not writing to you.

I returned from Cape May only on the day before yesterday. I had a very pleasant time there. When I went down there were comparatively few persons in the Hotel & Houses, but after a few days the number increased considerably. The weather almost all the time was delightful, as instead it is here this morning.

With kind regards to Mrs Swarr, believe me to be

Very Truly,

Yrs etc,

Edw Y. Buchanan

H B Swarr Esq.

