

My Dear Mr Swarr,

I have just returned from a short excursion, with two of my daughters, through a part of the Coal Region. And as I find a letter from you, (among several wh [sic] came during my absence) containing a check for $23.75, the amount of my share of the semiannual commissions on Mrs Johnston's Trust Estate, I snatch a moment to acknowledge the receipt of it, & to thank you for it.

Yrs, Very Truly,
Edw Y. Buchanan
