

Phila, Jan. 4 '83

My Dear Sir,

Yr [sic] favor of yesterday, containing a check for Mrs Johnston's half yearly Interest on US Bonds, was recd [sic] this morning; and, on receiving it, I took it down, & deposited it at Banking House of B R Jamison & Co, to the credit of Mr A S Henderson, as you desired me to do, & as you will see I did, by the enclosed paper. The young man however, you will notice, gave me an honorary title wh [sic] I did not belong to me, that of Esquire.

Sincerely, in return for yr [sic] kind wish, trusting that the year just begun may prove a happy one to you & all yours, I remain,

Very Truly,

E Y Buchanan

I am recg [sic] now pretty regularly, ~~p^{ro}~~ from Mr [sic] Curtis, proof sheets of the Biography. I have already nearly 150 pages.
