My Dear Sir,

Yr [sic] favor of yesty [sic], h containing a check for $23.50, my share of Commissions to 1st inst [sic] on Mrs [sic] Johnston's Trust, has been recd [sic]; for wh [sic] please accept my thanks.

Mr [sic] Curtis continues to send me quite rapidly, Proof sheets of the Biography. I have now well on to 300 pages. I think it is going to be quite an interesting book.

I have now the shares of United Co's Stock (in wh [sic] I had part of the Interest recd [sic] from you on the Elliot Lane Trust money, invested,) in the hands of the Saws for sale. When I receive the money for them I intend to deposit it, with all the other monies I have of the Trust, in the Phil^a Trust & Deposit Co. In it I have already $600 deposited; on wh [sic] I am to receive 2 per cent Interest.

Yrs, Very Truly,
E Y Buchanan
