

Wheatland 28 Dec: 61

My dear Sir,

I called twice at your office but did not find you there. Messrs. Magraw & Dawson with some other friends are to dine with me to day at 2 O'Clock. I should be very happy you would meet them. I should have gone to town yesterday to invite you; but it was cold & blustery & I did not feel very well.

from your friend always
James Buchanan
