

Oxford Ch, Phil^a Oct. 4 '74

My Dear Mr [sic] Swarr,

I enclose to you a copy of a letter to Mrs [sic] Johnston from Judge Cadwalader, wh [sic] the Judge sent me yesterday. He evidently ~~virtually requests me to~~ desires that you shd [sic] see it. I hence send it to you, with the request, that, when you are done with it, you wd return it to me.

I recd [sic] the copy of the Lan. Intelligencer wh [sic] you were kind enough to send me. Mrs [sic] J has since sent me one. Mrs J's letter is quite a good one.

I formerly was a subscriber to the Weekly Intelligencer; and have concluded to become such again, at least for a time. I will enclose a dollar in this, & will be obliged if you will have it sent to me for 6 months.

What an unfair & malicious paper the New Era must be.

Very Truly
Yrs & (in haste)
Edw Y. Buchanan

H B Swarr Esq
