My Dear Sir,

Yr [sic] favors of the 25th & 26th instants, came duly to hand. The statement contained in that of the 26th of our account, is entirely correct; & I will come up on any day you may name, to be qualified to its correctness. I had thought that it might be well to specify ~~the paymen~~ among the credits. The payments to Mr [sic] Curtis, to Judge Cadwalader & to the Insurance Co, with possibly some others; but perhaps it is as well, & better not. By a letter rec<sup>d</sup> [sic] from Mr. Curtis this morning & wh [sic] I will enclose to you, you will see that he does not wish the payment made to him, to appear in the account; I will enclose in this also, one of the two receipts wh [sic], at my request, he as sent me. The one enclosed I intended for you. Mr. C' postscript, I can get from you when I come up.

Very Truly,
Yrs,
EYBuchanan

H B Swarr Esq.
