

London 30 Jany 1864.

The Hon[^l]ble

James Buchanan

Wheatlands

Sir,

As usual at this season, we have the pleasure to enclose your Account current for the past year, shewing [sic] a balance of.

£3056,10,4 at Credit [as of] 31 Dec'r. which we carry forward to new account, and we shall conclude the entry to be correct, unless otherwise advised by you within a month after receipt

In the hope that over future transactions may be mutually advantageous we remain truly,

Sir

Your obedient Servants

Barring Brothers Co.

[on back of letter] 30 Jany, 1864 Baring Brothers & Co – with their account current 31 December 1863 – Balance £3056.10.4

[Address from front of letter as folded]

