

Clarion, Oct. 30, 1861

To His Excellency James Buchanan

Dear Sir

Enclosed please find my check for $71.25 being amt collected on Lucinda lands since last remittance. On 3rd page see statement. I am about to retire from the practice having been elected to the Judgeship of this district at the late election and unless otherwise directed will have the business of our firm in the hands of Col. C. L. Sanburton in whom I have the fullest confidence. He is elected to the State Senate but will have a partner (probably D Laweson Esq) to attend to his business – Please acknowledge rept of enclosed to Campbell & Lamberton with such instructions in selection to future collections as you may deem proper.

With Great Respect, Yours, etc.

James Campbell
