

28 July 1882

Dear L-

I wrote your letter yesterday a day before- Will in many will- I have [?] teased with slight dia & pain for two days swell enough to keep me from my outdoor amusements- received probably of long heat& exposure to sun- or something “[?]”- hope to [?] all night or day or [?]- I wrote a letter to your father yesterday. Mr Cooks a little like [?] to day- if it rains, will all first for to day- it [? ?]. Hope to have [words faded] Regie to day which would sonner

Your
JBH

