

93 Madison Avenue

Nov. 1st, 1907

My dearest friend, Mr. Henry,

Just a line, to thank you for all the kindness that we have shown to each other, all thru the long years, when we have [? ?]. I am still [?] you, but feel that I am [? ?]; and send greetings to wish you well, and [? ? ?] be a meeting in the [?] land, whereas our sons may [?] forgive for Jesus Christ's sake. They do know that I am well, but I feel that I am very near them. Love to your dear wife and dear boys, especially to dear Sidney, my lovely god-child, who never [?] to have needed chastising! [chastising?] He must be [serious?] forever. [Good bye, and should [?] bless my boys [? ? ?] May I see you in New York again.

I wish you all good bye [?] am

Mary H. Richardson.

JBFP 3.1.2.141

mss1996_453_1907_Mary_H_Richardson_to_JBH

LancasterHistory