J. Buchanan Henry, Esq.

Dear Sir. Yours of today has been received. Enclosing a check for twenty-five dollars payment in full for the professional services rendered to Mrs. Henry. I regret that these services were so unavailing. When I saw her on Staten Island, I could hardly have been induced to believe that her disease would or could have brought her to the condition in which I found her at Saratoga in so short a time. Then it was clear that her state was hopeless. It is a thousand pities that a person of so many virtues could not have been saved.

Yours truly

A Clark

[Receipt for services rendered to Mary Nicholson Henry in Saratoga, to Jas. B. Henry, Staten Island, 14 Wall St. for professional services in consultation with Dr. Anderson to his wife on March 28, 1863; dated New York, Sept. 15, 1863. Signed by A. Clark.]
