

Object ID: MG0828_SeriesC_F12

Document: Title for two cemetery plots, purchased on Sept. 25, 1858 by Thomas Welsh at the time of his daughter Addie's death.

Transcript:

[Front of certificate – handwritten portion in italics]

No. 92

This Certifies

that Lieut Thomas Welsh of

Columbia, Lancaster Co, Penna

is entitled to lots No 241 & No. 242 in the New Cemetery at Columbia.

The said Lieut Thomas Welsh having purchased and paid for the same the full sum of Twenty Dollars.

And I hereby bind myself, my heirs and assigns, to warrant and defend his title to the same as a burial-place for himself, his heirs and his assigns forever, against any and every other claimant whatsoever. Witness my hand and seal at Columbia.

Dated Sept 25th 18 58

J H Mifflin

[Back of certificate]

Certificate No 92
for Two lots in the
New Cemetery
Numbered 241 and 242
J. Mifflin to Thos Welsh

1858

LancasterHistory

Scope and Content:

Title certificate for two burial lots, numbers 241 and 242 in New Cemetery (now Mount Bethel Cemetery), Columbia, Pennsylvania. Purchased at the time of his daughter Addie's death. Certificate number 92, made out to Lieutenant Thomas Welsh. Signed J. H. Mifflin. Note: John Houston Mifflin was one of the original managers of the cemetery and later served as president.

