

Harrisburg May 30. 1839

Dear Sir

J. Shacklin informs me that he is an applicant to supply the want of cashiers in your bank. I do not think that you can find a more competent or judicious one any where. I know his business habits & capacity, and have full confidence in both -

Very respectfully.

Yours at service

Thaddeus Stevens

Christian Halderman Esq