Dear Sir:

I take the liberty of enclosing to you a proof impression of your own portrait, part of a series of portraits of leaders of public opinion, which I propose publishing, in my Illustrative paper.

Although your views on public affairs are pretty well known, still we should be pleased to have from you a resume of them, in such form as you choose, for publication in the same number with the portrait. - I will pay for it such sum as you may name, or will pay over on your behalf such sum as you may say, to any public charity you may designate. -

A clear, compact presentation of the views on public affairs of our public men would be advantageous to them and acceptable to the public.

Trusting to hear from you at an early date, I am

Very Truly Your Obedt. Servt.

Hon. Thaddeus Stevens
