I have just heard that all the Gentlemen who attend Louisburg court have left L— except Mr. Montgomery, and he is preparing to set off. I am sitting down to write to my dear Papa, though I hardly expect to get these few lines convey'd to him. Cousin Robert Shippen has paid us a visit: he left Uncle's family in pretty good health. I have heard twice from Mamma since she parted from me: she is well. Cousin Hards family are getting better.

Your Children, my dear Papa, look forward with pleasure to the return of their Parents, and none with greater than

Your truly affectionate Daugh^r.

Mary Yeates.

Wife of Judge Elias Smith.
