

5
July 28th 1795

Dear Sir

I Retained your Waggon yesterday on account of the Great Rain - I saw Struge yesterday ^{but} tells me he will not be able to Lall any but one Load, but there are two of his Neighbours he Expects will, if Spoke to, I have Advised Mr. Yeates to take his horse and ride up to them - It has turned out with Jacob as I Expected, he is again in the Dirt, he sent his waggon to Philadelphia last week, & has ^{sent} sent to Middletown this week, so that what I said of him will turn out to be true, that there can be no Dependance put in him - I have got the girl I spoke of engaged for Davids wife - I would have wrote with David but had not got an answer from the girls father - I have set some of Daniels hands to the seat of the Barn untill the will dry a little - the Sells is nearly Done but the Rain has caused the south ^{to} ^{Burst}

Burst in a good Deal — I have got ^{James} ~~James~~ yoke for his own Complattly fide off for him
this morning — I shall take every opportunity to Inform you how the work goes on —

I am with respect your friend &

Hubt. Swot.

Jasper Yeates Esq^r

Amos Staynaker
J. S.

Lancaster History

Jasper Yeates Esq^r

Lancaster

(Rev^d 29 July)

July 28. 1795.
Gen^l of the Ordnance Esq^r