

14

Faint handwritten text at the top of the page.

LancasterHistory

Edward Burd Esq.

Edw Burd Esq

Dear Sir.

Mr. Chambers's Business in the Co<sup>ty</sup> of Northumb<sup>r</sup> & Durham has fallen in to my Hands, to transact, but that part of it which depends in the Supreme Court I am entirely unacquainted with. Upon the strictest Search I can't discover that he kept any Docket of it. Mr. Yeates advises me to request of you that your Brother may be permitted to transcribe the Suits wherein he was concerned, and transmit them to me.
I can then with propriety order up those Causes wherein Mr. Chambers was concerned.

Mr. Yeates says the Baron will compensate him for his Trouble.

I am Sir

your most hum<sup>l</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

W. J. Henry
Aug. 3<sup>o</sup> 1789.

Wm. Burd Esq<sup>r</sup>

14

Philadelphia

John Henry
10 May 1889

Lancaster History