Introduction

The above artist's rendition of Barney Ewell is part of a mural painted on the wall of a building at the Ewell/Gantz Playground at 446 S. Christian Street in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Henry Norwood "Barney" Ewell was born 25 February 1918 in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania and died 4 April 1996 in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. To get a sense of Barney's track accomplishments watch the YouTube documentary by the McCaskey Alumni Association and Jeremiah Miller, Breaking Through: The Barney Ewell Story at the following Web site.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s8aCrbvzXXc>

This genealogy was unable to trace Barney's ancestors beyond his grandfather Henry C. Ewell (b. 1842, d. 5 Feb 1917). It has been speculated that Henry was a slave, as was his father Nelson Ewell, and that the slave owner was Jesse Ewell in Virginia, but this supposition could not be proven with the resources available in Lancaster. Further research in Virginia is needed. Nelson's data sheet along with his wife's are provided to aid in this research. This genealogy also identifies many of Barney's relatives who are shown in the descendants chart after the individual data sheets. The descendants chart is incomplete, especially with more recent descendants due to the lack of public data. An excellent source for additional information is the Wilson-Joy-Babour Wells Family Tree by Sheila Joy on Ancestry.com. This family tree is well sourced and can be found at the following Web site.

Every effort was made to enter correct data, but errors will occur. Corrections and new information can be sent to the compiler to update this record.

Book Organization

- A. Descendants of Nelson and Clara Ewell Chart – This direct line descendants chart starts with the oldest ancestor of Barney Ewell and ends with Barney’s descendants. Nelson Ewell could not be proven at this time but is believed to be correct and is the subject of future research.

- B. Descendants of Nelson and Clara Ewell – This section provides individual detail pages for individuals shown in the Descendants Chart. The data came from the genealogical program, The Master Genealogist, v. 6.09 and consists primarily of event types, dates and the details, listed in chronological order. In addition, each line includes an endnote(s), if applicable, referring the reader to the Endnotes section. The endnotes list the sources of the information. The following event types are included as applicable.

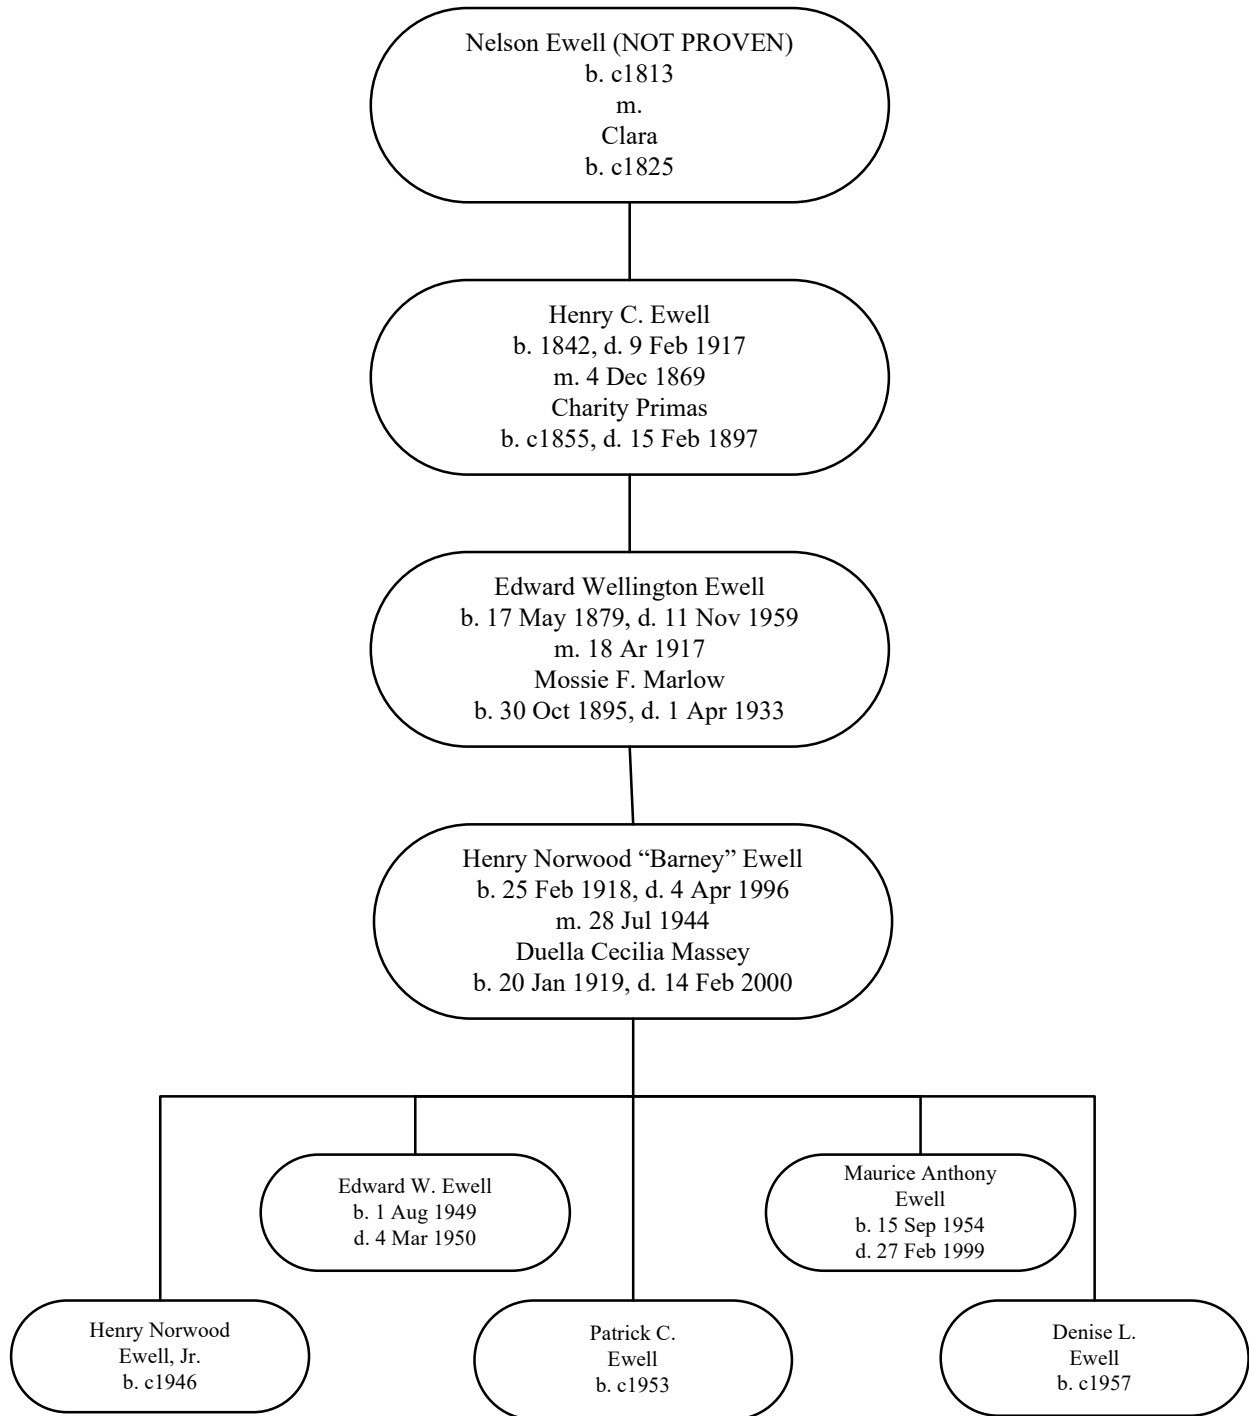

1. Parents’ names, birth dates and death dates	7. Children’s names, birth date and place
2. Individual’s birth date and place	8. Education: school(s), date(s) and degree(s)
3. Immigration and Naturalization information	9. Occupation(s)
4. Military service	10. Death date and place
5. Residences and Addresses	11. Burial date and place
6. Marriage date, place and spouse	12. Other interesting information as applicable

- C. Appendix A – Descendants Chart of Nelson and Clara Ewell. This chart is the Ewell includes Nelson and Clara Ewell and all the descendants of Henry C. Ewell located to date. The focus was on Henry C. Ewell since there was primary source evidence linking him to Barney Ewell. The link to Nelson Ewell could not be proven at this time, so his other children’s descendants were not developed.

- D. Endnotes – This section provides all the endnotes referenced in the B above.

- E. Full Name Index – This section provides an alphabetical listing, last name first, of all the primary names, cross-referenced with the applicable page number. For married females, both birth and married last names, if known, are listed. Other individuals that are not primary names are listed by their first occurrence. Names from Appendix A are also included.

 the world record of 10.2 seconds in the 100-metre dash. At the Games themselves, Ewell won two individual silver medals.
 He came from behind to finish a close second in the 100-metre dash; he then led for most of the 200-metre dash, only to fall back in the home stretch. He led off the U.S. team that easily won the 400-metre relay, but the victory was initially ruled void because Ewell appeared to hand the baton to a teammate outside the passing zone; after viewing a film of the race, however, officials reversed the ruling, giving the Americans the gold medal.^{123,124}
